

DEVELOPING HOSPITALITY PROPERTIES AND FACILITIES

2nd Edition

Edited by Josef Ransley & Hayden Ingram

- * Bridges the gap between generic and applied texts on developing hospitality properties and facilities
- * Supported by international case studies from companies such as MyTravel, Disneyland Paris Hotel, Elysium Beach Resort and many others
- * Acclaimed authors and figures in the industry, such as Paul Slattery (Otus & Co Advisory Ltd), Chris Rouse (CB Richard Ellis Hotels Ltd), Sue Davis (Scott Brownrigg) and Richard Penner and Jan deRoos at Cornell University, USA provide extensive analysis of the topic area

Developing Hospitality Properties and Facilities, second edition, sets out some of the key issues in developing hospitality properties from the hospitality manager's perspective.

From the original concept, through each part of the process, the book provides an essential guide for students and professionals on how to manage the development of hotel and leisure facilities to best effect, using a model-based insight into the process in an informed, but non-technical way.

Josef Ransley is a Chartered Designer and Hotel Development Consultant, with extensive experience of hotel and leisure development and construction. He is also a visiting Professor at the IMHI Essec - Cornell University, MBA Programme, and Lecturer at the Hotel Management School, University of Surrey.

Hadyn Ingram is a Professor at Revans University, the University of Action Learning, a Director of Clovelly Hotel Consultancy and a Lecturer in Hotel Management at the University of Surrey.
